[REDACTED] advised that he has the ability to see into the future that allowed [REDACTED] to know that he was not getting out of prison for a long time. [REDACTED] added that he knew that within nine days of being released from prison, [REDACTED] was going to die by having his throat slashed. [REDACTED] advised that he even knew the identity of the person who was going to kill him. [REDACTED] advised that there was nothing he could do to keep this prophecy from coming true.

b6
b7C

SA [REDACTED] explained to [REDACTED] that it was a violation of federal law to write and to send threatening letters to anybody and was an additional violation of law to threaten a U. S. Senator. SA [REDACTED] cautioned [REDACTED] that he should not write letters using language that can be interpreted as being a threat.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] advised that he understood what SA [REDACTED] said. [REDACTED] again advised that he never intended to threaten Senator SPECTER and did not intend to harm Senator SPECTER.

RE: [redacted]

Dear [redacted]

This letter is to confirm your January 24, 1994, conversation with Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of our Harrisburg Resident Agency regarding mailed threats of [redacted] which were directed towards the Honorable Senator Arlen Specter, U.S. Senator.

b6

Briefly, [redacted] sent a letter (see attached) to Senator Specter in which he threatened to kill the Senator. As you are aware, this is the second instance involving [redacted] threatening a Federal public official since October 1993.

Although [redacted] has been housed in the restrictive housing unit at the Frackville SCI his letters have caused a certain amount of discomfort for those to whom the letters have been sent. Your assistance in stopping these letters is requested. We would also request that the FBI and U.S. Marshals office in Harrisburg and Senator Specter's office in Harrisburg be contacted if the release of [redacted] is contemplated.

RE: [REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is to confirm your conversation with Special Agent [REDACTED] of our Harrisburg office regarding your office's declination of prosecution on the above matter due to the inability of the subject [REDACTED] to follow through on this threat.

As you are aware, [REDACTED] previously sent a threatening letter to the Honorable [REDACTED] in October of 1993. On that occasion [REDACTED] Pennsylvania Department of Corrections determined that [REDACTED] was incarcerated at the Frackville SCI where he is serving a 10-20 year sentence for rape. [REDACTED] minimum date of release of March 15, 1994, had been pushed back to August 1994, due to the numerous disciplinary misconducts which have been filed against him. [REDACTED] also advised that as a practical matter [REDACTED] would probably need to have one year of discipline-free prison time before he would be considered for parole. Based upon his prior conduct it appears [REDACTED] will not be released from prison until his maximum date of release of March 15, 2004. Based upon [REDACTED] information, [REDACTED] was not interviewed in the October 1993 incident.

[redacted] was recontacted and advised the FBI that [redacted] status is unchanged. [redacted] is housed in the prisons Restrictive Housing Unit and is unable to make good on any threats he might make. [redacted] requested another letter to the Department of Corrections and will have [redacted] correspondence more closely monitored. A letter has been sent to [redacted] requesting closer monitoring of [redacted] outgoing correspondence and notification of the U.S. Marshals, the FBI and the Office of Senator Specter should [redacted] release be contemplated.

[redacted] was interviewed on January 25, 1994. The agent conducting the interview questioned [redacted] about the letter sent to the Senator Specter. [redacted] advised that he was a prophet who liked Senator Specter and was trying to warn the Senator to quit using alcohol and "he'd be okay". [redacted] was specifically advised that he was not to send threatening letters, or letters that could be construed as threatening to anyone. He was advised that should future letters be sent the government's attitude regarding them might change.
